

The Power of Modernization

To keep up with the rapid pace of change, audit and accounting firms must modernize or fail. This includes new offerings to clients and smarter ways to operate internally.

Are You Following?

Rapid regulatory change, evolving customer needs, and tight competition for talent is forcing professional services firms to rethink their audit and accounting portfolio.

New rules

78+ FASB rule updates in the last five years alone – and that shows no signs of slowing¹

Less revenue

78% finance process automation predicted by industry experts²

20% or higher turnover at many firms³

The High Cost Of Standing Still

As firms struggle to keep up with customer expectations and market realities, the costs of hesitation begin to multiply exponentially.

- Clients demand both new kinds of expertise and old standards of traditional customer service
- A new generation of tax and audit professionals are also demanding better tools and opportunities

Or Taking The Lead?

Merely embracing change won't be enough. The future belongs to leaders willing to invest in it. Thomson Reuters cloud audit suite offers firms a platform on which to grow and transform.
